

Spread Over Us a Sukkah
of Peace and Justice

“And the work of justice shall be peace.

And the effect of justice,
calm and confidence forever.

Then my people will dwell in peaceful homes, in secure dwellings, and in untroubled places of rest.”

May All Our Homes Be Shelters of Peace

Recognizing October as Domestic Violence Awareness Month, we tie this ornament to our sukkah. As we recite the words of Isaiah on the reverse of this card, we hold to the vision that every home will be a Sukkat Shalom — a shelter of peace and justice, a place of calm and confidence — for every person in our community.
